Definitions

— What's a Movie NFT?

A collectible behind-the-scenes (BTS) video of an iconic movie moment

If Terminator was the BITFLIX IMO (initial movie offering), the BTS video of Arnold Schwarzenegger's phrase "I'll be back" would be the Movie NFT

— What's the value?

Resale value.

If the actor or movie IP becomes famous, the NFT becomes more valuable.

Participation.

NFT holders have exclusive access to stars via red carpet events and metaverse parties and ask-me-anything (AMA) sessions during with filmmakers.

Growth

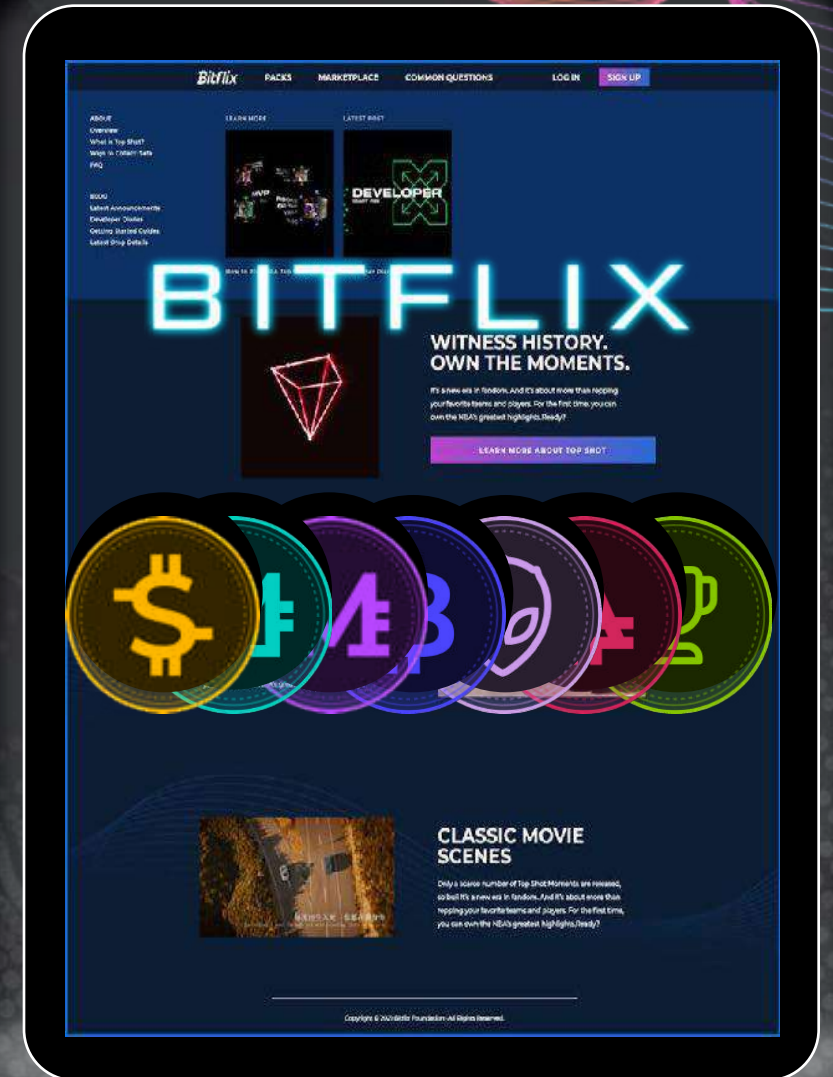

AVAX has committed essential development work to support Bitflix growth.

User Base

AVAX supports the necessary tx volume to handle our celebrity user base

Identify new talent and ideas

Joseph Baena Schwarzenegger and Bianca Wilburn will be recurring partners in AVAX's hackathon push, doing 1 hackathon a month to identify new talent and ideas.

Founder & CEO

Tiger Miller

Film / TV Producer & Financier

Mr. Miller has produced content for multi-million dollar cross-border productions for over 15 years, including flagship product advertising campaigns featuring The Kardashians, Allen Iverson, Dilraba and others for clients such as Baidu, Qihoo 360 Security and Harper's Bazaar. These spots have attracted tens of millions of Internet hits and have been broadcast on national television in China, Japan and the United States.

In 2016, Mr. Miller successfully re-launched the Sesame Street television series in mainland China, one of over 50 China and US-China productions in which he has played a pivotal creative and cross-cultural role.
